

Protection Monitoring key findings Round 1/2022

- 2,646 KI (1,758 M and 888 F) interviews were conducted by 10 organizations in 18 governorates, 71 districts and 128 sub-districts
- The majority of the KIs were IDPs, returnees, private sector workers, community or tribal leaders and outreach volunteers
- 16% of KIs report that safety and security incidents involving armed, or security actors happen sometimes or frequently (highest in Ninewa 19%), (Diyala 18%) and (Anbar 17%).
- 9% of KIs report that presences of armed and security actors is the main security issue among communities - (highest in SAD with 15% and Anbar 13%) and 5% of KIs report civilian death or injury caused by UXO or landmines as the second main issue (highest in SAD 44% and Ninewa 27%).
- 13% of KIs report that mistreatment including verbal and/or physical assault is the main security issue of violence and violations against civilians (highest in SAD with 33%) and 10% of KIs report detention (highest in Anbar 37%) and 9% reported arrest (highest in SAD 26%) as second and third main issues.
- 15% of KIs report that violations of the right to life and physical integrity against civilians occur sometimes or frequently
- 18% of KIs report restrictions on freedom of movement to other district/governorates, (highest in Anbar 27%, Diyala 26% and SAD 20%)
- 40% of KIs report that some or most people are facing issues to obtain or renew their civil documentation
- 16% of KIs report that social tensions and conflict occur sometimes or frequently
- 45% of KIs report that people some or most people face HLP issues
- 34% of KIs assess the protection situation of women and children as negative