

Protection Monitoring System – highlights round six (May-June)

30 August 2022

The dashboard for the Protection Monitoring System has been updated with the results from the 6th Round of data collection (Second Round of 2022), which was conducted from May - June 2022. It can be accessed on the following link.

In this round 2422 (1,720 male and 700 female) KI informants were assessed by 11 organizations in 18 governorates, 75 districts and 132 sub-districts.

Key highlights here below:

Safety and Security

- 8% of KIs report that presence of armed and security actors is the main security issue among communities - (highest in Anbar with 20% and SAD 10%) and 4% of KIs report destruction of civilian property caused by armed actors as the second main issue (highest in SAD 19% and Diyala 10%).
- 18% of KIs report that safety and security incidents involving armed or security actors happen sometimes or frequently - Frequency of incidents reportedly the highest in SAD (32%), Anbar (25%) and Baghdad (21%).

Right to life and integrity

- 13% of KIs reported theft and robbery are the main security issues of violence against civilians (highest in Kerbala 55 % and Anbar with 43%) and 12% of KIs report that mistreatment including verbal and/or physical assault (highest in SAD 31% and Anbar 28%) as second main issue.
- 15% of KIs report that violations of the right to life and physical integrity against civilians occur sometimes or frequently - Frequency of rights-violations reportedly the highest in SAD (29%), Kerbala (25%), and Diyala (20%).

Freedom of movement

- 24% of KIs report restrictions on freedom of movement to other districts/governorates - Severity of restrictions on movement reportedly the highest in Wassit (82%), Diyala and Kerbala (40%), and Anbar (35%).

Access to civil documentation

- 52% of KIs report that some or most people are facing issues to obtain or renew their civil documentation - Prevalence of issues related to civil documentation reportedly the highest in Kerbala (95%), Wassit (74%), Anbar (71%), Erbil (70%), and Suleymaniah (67%).

Social cohesion

- 18% of KIs report that social tensions and conflict occur sometimes or frequently - Frequency of social tensions and conflict reportedly the highest in Kerbala (95%), SAD (30%), Anbar (20%), and Ninewa (15%).

HLP issues

- 44% of KIs report that some or most people face HLP issues - Prevalence of HLP issues reportedly the highest in Kerbala /Babil (100%), Wassit (74%), SAD (62%), Anbar (60%), and Diyala (59%).

GBV and CP

- 30% of KIs assess the protection situation of women as negative - Severity of protection issues affecting women and girls reportedly the highest in Najaf and Babil (100%), Wassit (64%), Anbar (53%), SAD and Diyala (47%).
- 28% of KIs assess the protection situation of children as negative - Severity of protection issues affecting children reportedly the highest in Babil/Najaf (100%), Wassit (64%), Baghdad (58%), and Anbar (43%).