MoMD Camp Closure Plan Key Points

Topic	Content	Responsible Entity
Principles:	Durable Solutions Pathways: Return, Local Integration/Stability, Relocation Voluntariness (Family request) Freedom of movement/residency (Iraqi Constitution)	Simplification of procedures by MoMD and provision of transportation
Assistance Package	MoMD Grant IQD 4million (Disbursed by Cheque)	MoMD
	Rehabilitation/compensation for damaged homes	UN, Central Compensation Committee
	Special Grants and Loans	REFAATO, Government & Private Banks
Tribal and Security Obstacles	Livelihoods grants and employment	MoMD, Ministry of Transport
	Tribal conflicts, judicial issues, occupation by security forces (blocked areas)	High Level Committee and Judicial Coordination between KRG and GOI

- Acknowledgment of the Gov. Plan to close camps
- Inclusion of Out of Camp IDPs
- Urging revised timeline to ensure informed decision making by IDPs
- Urging cooperation and coordination with the Kurdistan Regional Government.
- Recognition that if implemented in a principled manner the Government plan defines concrete steps and dedicates funding to resolving obstacles faced by displaced families
- Revoking of prohibition on UN and NGOs on working in camps post 30 July 2024

Principles of Engagement

- IASC principles of voluntariness, dignity, safety, informed decision making, and inclusion.
- Applicability of all three durable solutions pathways.
